half a dozen were addressed to present resi-

Veteran League, and the action of the Committee is generally condemned—as it should be.

Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said it was a slight strain and would soon be well, but it grew worse and the doctor then said I had rheumatism. It continued to grow worse and I could hardly get around to work. I went to a druggist and the druggist recommended me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I tried it and one-half of a 5-cent bottle cured me entirely. I now recommend it to all my friends.—F. A. BANCROFT, Erie, Pa.

A Spanish Danceress Transferred From the Depot to the Dungeon.

Let the high wave of morality roll on!
While the danceress, the Spanish danceress,
who delighted so many during the Street Fair with her platform performances, went to the C. and O. Station yesterday afternoon and had her baggage checked for Cincinnati.

An officer got there ahead of the train, however, and the Miss Otero danceress was escorted to jail.

The charge against her was in effect that she had given a bit of telephonic high art
somewhere in the city at some time.

Her hearing is held for 2 o'clock this afternoon.

HIT THE HORSE.

Office Stockholders Use a Club on Mr. John
Y. Dean's Fine Animal.

During circus day the streets were very much crowded.

Mr. Charles Moore, driver for Manager
John Y. Dean of the Mayfield Produce Company, was making his way at the corner of Second and Market, when Office Stockholder died his horse a heavy blow across the head
with a big club.

Being apprised of the fact Mr. Dean had warrant issued for the officer's arrest, and he will have a hearing tomorrow.

With Police Officers pounding prisoners over the head with bludgeons, and Police Officers shooting valuable and ineffective darts
to say nothing of shooting citizens, and Police Officers' pounding defenseless dumb brutes
over the head with clubs, Mayville stands a pretty fair chance for an ugly and expensive
law suit one of these fine days.

THEY WANT WORK.

Those Who Have Signed For a Place in the Proposed Shoe Factory.

As stated in The Leader some days ago,
there is a prospect of a shoe enough Shoe Factory in Mayville if the parties can secure from 450 to 600 hands here.

With this end in view, lists were left at the various drugstores and at other convenient places, where those who wished employment might sign their names.

Up to this morning the list stands—

M. C. Hutchison..... 100
M. C. Wallingford..... 65
T. J. Chenoweth..... 75
H. W. Hay..... 12
J. C. Peck..... 6
J. J. Wood & Son..... 6
George T. Wood..... 30
Armstrong & Son..... 30
Dawson Bros..... 2

Total..... 335

The few registered at some of the places including the fact that persons did not know
there was a list at those stores.

There is also a list at Frank Devine's Cigar Store on Market street near Third.

Within the next twenty-four hours the number ought to be doubled; and if the Factory starts those who sign will be given a preference for employment.

'Twas "WINTER" DAY!

John I. Winter's Big Deering
Parade and Banquet.

WHAT "GUT UP GIT" DOES.

Yesterday was the first day, and although hot enough to bring out the 10-15 palmated fans and the big sunshades, it was just another Winter Day in Mayville.

These statements on the surface may seem to conflict, but they are facts, nevertheless.

Speaking of Winter in Mayville must not always be associated with cold weather, for John I. Kentucky's Price Fighter and a general hustler, does business here—and he's
"hot" for trade all the year round.

Among numerous other things Mr. Winter sells Deering Machines, not only in Mason county, but in some more counties as well.

Mr. Winter is assisted in his canvass in his particular territory by several enterprising agents, and when all get to work they make things hum.

In the first place they sell good implements,
and in the second place they treat the buyers
right.

For instance, to purchasers of Deering Machines, Mr. Winter each year gives a big plum—something on the order of a family reunion.

Yesterday he held his fourth annual reception, and although just at noon a regular gate swept over the city, followed by a very wet rain. Mr. Winter and his guests were high and dry.

Early yesterday morning a force of hands went to work at the L. and N. Depot unloading the cars in which Deering Machines had been brought here, and getting them in the warehouse in waiting, at last to be sent to the purchasers.

At 10:30, when the completed, a line of parade was formed on East Third street, and in the following order made a tour of the city:

Grand Marshal J. J. Storer.

Augusta Band.

Autour Lee Winter, son of John I., in decorated pony car.

Mr. John I. Winter, the "Deering Agent," in handsome turnout.

Carriages containing other Deering Agents.

Long line of Wagons, containing Deering Machines, sold this Spring by John I. Winter.

The parade attracted as much attention as any circus parade.

The Augusta Band came up specially to brave the occasion and rendered the best selections for the celebration of a former fellow townsman, for it's true in this case that Bracken lost a hustling citizen and Mason gained one.

Mr. Winter has sold 28 Machines this Spring and yesterday delivered 75, three carloads
have been sent to serve in time.

In line there was one wagon from Bath county loaded with five machines, and one from Nicholas loaded with four.

Had it not been for the rains of the past few days a larger number of wagons would have been here, but the tobacco "season" kept many away.

It was not unusual to see one wagon loaded with several machines for the same neighborhood, when it was designed that each purchaser should send his own wagon for his machine.

After the procession the teams were un-hitched and horses stabled, and Mr. Winter's farmer friends repaired to the St. Charles Hotel where the following elegant menu was promptly and most satisfactorily served by Colonel George C. McMurry and his assistant wife:

"WINTER DAY"—THURSDAY, JUNE 1, 1899.

Dinner.

Soup—Pure of Tomato.

Fish—Boiled Salmon, Butter Sauce.

Roast Chicken.

Roast Beef with Horseradish.

Roast Lamb of Pork.

Compte of Muclet Grains with Rice.

Fresh Butter.

Creamed New Potatoes.

New Beets. Green Peas. Sugar Corn.

Salmon Salad.

Baked Cherry Bolls. Oven Sauce.

Pineapple Sherbet with Cake.

New York Cream Cheese. Assorted Nuts.

Ice Tea. Milk. Coffee.

Fully two hundred people discussed the menu and certainly no one had reason to complain either of the quantity or quality.

About 12:30 a heavy wind and rain storm
set in, and this necessitated the abandonment of the luncheon reception that had been planned at 2:30 by Colonel W. H. Fremont; but the airship went up at 6:30.

It was regretted by those who were Mr. Winter's guests on these occasions that Deering Day is not celebrated more than once a year.

The ladies congratulate Mr. Winter on his success as a Deering Agent and an enterprising business man.

UNCLE SAM AND GREATER AMERICA

GOLLY, how the politicians do a newspaper man—just before an election.

FOURTH DECEMBER declares that Trusts are but a step towards inevitable socialism, and that it is useless to oppose them. It is not stated how much Mr. Deeds got for this opinion.

THE candidates are just now busily seeking the newspaper men to help them out; but after they are elected, and the newspaper man asks a favor at their hands, he is told to go to the Devil.

Kate's Short has placed a substantial workman on the roof of the Cox Building.

For relief and comfort, see Asthma Coughs' Honey of Tar has equal. Price 25 and 50 cents. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

A number of Augusta people—among them Mr. Winter's father—came up yesterday to witness John I. Winter's parade and to enjoy his hospitality.

Mr. Henry E. Gaby, having resigned his position as Principal of the Intermediate Male Department of the High School, will leave for Louisville, where he will enter the Seminary and take a three years course, during which time he will be in the Ministry. His many friends in this city wish him unbounded success.

A sailor, jaundiced skin is a symptom of disordered liver, as it springs from bilious poisons retained in the blood, which destroy energy, cheerfulness, strength, vigor, happiness and life. Herbine will restore the natural functions of the liver. Price 50 cents. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

It was the universal verdict that the Wallace Show, which exhibited here May 15th, had following it the most numerous and most active gang of thieves that ever struck the town at one time. One citizen, who is somewhat of a sportsman, was forced to knock three of them down in order to keep from being robbed; and yet there wasn't a single one of the thugs arrested.

The Epworth League of the M. E. Church, South, will meet as usual Sunday evening at 6:45. It being the first Sunday in the month the Society will hold its regular business meeting with the President, Prof. Thomas presiding. Short talks upon the topics "Wages and Taxes," with music, will be profitable to all in attendance. All are cordially invited.

Would Not Suffer No Again for Fifty Times Its Price.

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I commenced taking it and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not do without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.—H. W. Wilson, Washington, O. This remedy is for sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

LONDON, Ky., June 2.—Arguments in the Wilson murder case were concluded Thursday night and the case given to the jury for deliberation. A verdict is expected Friday. All day the tower was thronged with people, and the courthouse was filled almost to suffocation.

At the courthouse about 7 o'clock Thursday evening Dr. A. C. After a heated argument Dr. Foster called Judge Brown a liar and slapped him in the face. Judge Brown walked away, but further trouble is expected.
